Mrs. Harrison saw a number of callers yesterday afternoon from 3 to 4 o'clock in the red varior, assisted by Mrs. McKee and Mrs. Russell Harrison, the latter having entirely recovered from the recent indisposition that prevented her accompanying Mr. J. W. Thompson and party on the yachting trip down the river. Mrs. Harrison wore a cloth dress of plum color trimmed with black silk braid. Mrs. McKee were a gown of gray cloth and white garnitures, and Mrs. Russell Harrison was in a becoming toilet of pale terra cotta cloth and silk. Among those present were Mrs. Dawes, Mrs. Butler, Mrs. Blackburn, Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Hazen, Mrs. Daniels, Mrs. Payne and her daughter, Mrs. Bingham, of Cleveland, Mrs. Kenna, Mrs. Stanford, Mrs. Cockrell, Mrs. Mat-tingly, Mrs. A. J. Halford, Mrs. Dahlgren, Miss Rebecca Strickle of Dayton, Miss Dar-lington and Mrs. Hearst, with Mr. Marr of Munich. The hour was a most agreeable one, as the ladies in Washington er tire of the White House, and Mrs. Harrion, who was ever a favorite in the senatorial circle, is no less charming and attractive than in the days when she adorned that circle. At 4 o'clock Maj. Powell accompanied a delega-tion from the meeting of the mining engineers to call upon the President, who, with Mrs. Harrison, shook hands with them in the east room. Mr. J. J. Weeks of Pittsburg made the esentations. The visiting metallurgists and their wives make a handsome company of men and women. The drawing room floor was thrown open for their delectation and some of them wandered through the conservatory.

Mrs. Dr. Pope held a charming reception yesterday afternoon to see her friends. ore a dress of white merino braided in black and was assisted by Mrs. de Kraft, in a toilet of black lace and velvet, and Miss Dahlgren, in stone blue cloth. The hot chocolate served by Mrs. de Kraft was very acceptable to the visitsphere. After 4 o'clock there was music by the well-known musicians of the society of musicians of which both Dr. and Mrs. Pope are members. Mrs. Noot sang a love song with sympathetic sweetness, and there were piano and flute duets and other numbers that were leasing to the many music lovers present. Mrs. Romero, Mrs. Dahlgren, Gen. Card, Mrs. Mendenhall, Miss Florence Bayard, Miss Squire were among those present.

Mrs. Guzman, Mrs. Guthridge, Mrs. Chas. P. Lincoln and Mrs. Ross Perry were informally at home to callers yesterday. Maj. and Mrs. Powell entertained the members of the Association of Mining Engineers and the ladies of their party at a reception last night at their residence from 9 to 12 o'clock. Mrs. Mendenhall, Mrs. Weeks, Mrs. Ross Raymond, Mrs. Eggleston and Mrs. Billings assisted the hostess to receive the visitors. An elaborate supper was served and the visiting cientists carry with them to their various homes a more enthusiastic impression of the capital city than that they would have possed had they not met their charming host and hostess of last evening.

Senator and Mrs. Stewart entertained a large company at dinner last evening in their apartment in the Shoreham. The table was florally decked with La France roses and the bouquets were pink roses tied with pink ribbons. The menu cards were specially decorated with hand painting and served as souvenirs of the occaion. The guests were Senator and Mrs. Hearst, senator and Mrs. John P. Jones, Senator and Mrs. Stanford, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pixley of California, Miss Aldrich, Maj. Lottin, military attache of the French legation, and Mr. and Mrs. Sloss. Mrs. Hazen will leave for New York city today to be absent for a week.

Laura Ormiston Chant, Miss Elizabeth W. Maj. Pickler of Dakota, will receive their friends from 8 to 12 on Monday evening at

The social season closed at Laurel last Friday night with a large dance at the academy of music. It was one of the most brilliant and enjoyable occasions of the winter, and the comnittee received unstinted praise for their untiring efforts to make it a success. Numerous strangers were present from adjacent towns and cities, and from Washington were noted the Misses Gorman, Miss Grace Flack. Mrs. and Miss Tyssowski, Messrs. Gorman, Young Mr. Alexander G. Cochran, the general counsel of the Missouri Pacific railroad, and Mrs. Cochran have been spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sands at Mint-

The social and high tea at Miss Ransom's studio, 4 to 10 this evening, will be very enjoyable. An elegant lunch will be served by ladies attired as stately dames in the garb of 1776, assisted by lovely damsels in quaint cosume. There will be music and dancing. Gen. and Mrs. J. W. Foster returned to the they passed a couple of weeks, and are again at home, 1405 I street. The Hon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Mattocks of Portland, Me., have arrived in Washington and are spending a few days at 1403 H street. Mrs. Thomas B. Reed and Mrs. Mattocks were in the House yesterday listening to the debate Mrs. L. G. Hine and Miss Hine will hold their last reception tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. E. P.

Mrs. Justice Blatchford will not receive more on Mondays this season. The Ladies historical society met as usual yesterday morning at Mrs. Horatio King's, Mrs. Col. J. H. Gilman in the chair. Mrs. Z. Vance read a paper upon Jean d'Arc, followed by Miss S. Townsend upon cotemporary his-tory. Mrs. W. Ross Browne read upon Provenpaper upon mediæval interiors. The music was exceptionally fine. Miss K. Gilman and Miss M. Young played two duets. Miss Gilman played also the andante and first variation from Beethoven's Sonata Op. 26.

Mr. Edward F. Knapp, accompanied by his wife and daughter, of Boston, Mass., are the guests of Mr. S. W. Woodward. The first meeting of the Nonpareil dramatic and musical club was held at the parlors of Mrs. Adeline Duval Mack last evening and was well attended. Gen. and Mrs. Wheeler and the Misses Wheeler of Alabama are located at 1014 15th

The Gathering Next Week of Women of Liberal Views.

If women do not make long advances this winter in their efforts after equal rights and suffrage for both sexes it is not for lack of trying. This week the conservative party of the female suffragists have met in congress assembled in this city. They have resolved, enacted, petitioned and demanded, and after saying their say and transacting all sorts of important business they have adjourned, to do it all tive element of the movement. It was made up of women who have fought the battle along the same line for the last quarter of a century or more and are prepared to keep it up if necessary for an indefinite length of time to

THE COMING GATHERING. Next week their place before the public attention will be filled by another set. Within the last year a number of women throughout the country have felt that too many side issues were creeping into the struggle for equal suffrage and attracting too much of the attention of the fair warriors. These more advanced and liberal women, as they consider themselves, are of the opinion that the question of temperance, the church, religious matters in general and a half dozen other such matters have nothing whatever to do with the question of woman suffrage. Actention will be filled by another set. Within do with the question of woman suffrage. Accordingly, under the leadership of Mrs. Matilda Joslyn Gage, one of the original founders of the National woman suffrage association, and delegates from twenty-seven states, a call has been issued for a convention to be held in this city next Monday and Tuesday. The call has aroused general interest and delegates from every section of the country will be in attendance. The convention is for the purpose, as it is announced, of uniting the liberal-suffrage and other liberal-thought women of the country in other liberal-thought women of the country in a national organization to be known as the THE OBJECTS. The object they have in view is "to avert," mence Monday morning at 10:50.

At the various meetings addresses will be made by Mattida Joslyn Gage. Henrietta Payne Westbrook, Susan H. Wixon, Mary A. White, Eliza B. Burnz, Prof. Eliiott Cones, Voltairin de Cleyre, Rev.
